

My grandmother Mary Bailey Adair had a brother Arthur Cartland Bailey. When I lived in San Diego I had many opportunities to visit him and his family. I did not meet his first wife, but enjoyed visiting with Maurine. She even played the organ/piano at my marriage to Brenda in 1980.

Maurine had been married before and had 1 child, Anita Felton. Like most others, Anita had 2 spouses. One of her children is Celia Johnson. I have met Celia and her daughter Monica; they were at Cartland's 85th birthday that I attended in 1971.

These are some of the photos of Cartland and Maurine that I shared on ancestry.com. Another ancestry member contacted me last week thanking me for those photos, and she wanted to know my connection to Cartland and Bailey Island. The person knew much about the Bailey family.

She told me she is the daughter of Monica and named Misha, so Maurine is her great-great grandmother. When I mentioned this story to Natalie, she said she has a pencil sketch done by Celia Johnson. Misha quote:
“Both My grandmother Celia And my grandpa Richard were amazingly talented in their drawing and musical talents! 🥰 they both passed that down to the rest of us too lol!”
