REDDING, IOWA, April 11. 1920.

My dear Mary:-

This sure has been a rainy old day down here, I hope it has been better up there.

My dear I wonder what we will be doing two month from today. We will began life together then won't we dearie.

I got my Certificate for my 100 shares in the Central national oil Company today.

We havn't sowed any oats since the snow, it is going to put farming all to be done in about thirty or forty days, that will be long enough if it just stay dry long enough.

My dear two month from now we won't half to write letter to each other, we will be to gether the most of the time how much nicer it will be then won't it dearie.

If I knew it was going to rain I would prabble came to see you for I do like to be with you my dear for you mean so much to me without you. I do not know what I would do, You are the only dear to me in this whole wide world.

The aeroplane has not got to Redding it stoped at Albany mo and lit on the bottom and it has been to muddy for them to start it

REDDING, IOWA,

I think they can find a hill around Redding to light it on.

You will have to excuse my paper this time I will try and get some by the next time I write.

I order four ton of coal to use in the base burner, if we get it there won't have to be much wood chopping done this winter -

Goodnight my dear Mary with lot of love and kisses

as ever yours.
