Dear Alot,

Well as you can see by the address we finally got moved and the place isn't so bad at all. (I hope I haven't told you all this) There are two rooms and it really quite homified - wish you could see it now, it is Really cleaned up.

Lionta & I are just waiting to go out so I'm going to take advantage of the lapse of time & write you a letter.

The kitchen is the larger of the two rooms and we have a real sink with a drain (just like A. Margit), a gas stove with an oven. Really super. Plenty of closet space & plenty of shelves for groceries & dishes besides shelves in the closet for boxes, hats, etc. We are slowly getting settled. The living room has one upholstered arm chair, & a bed we leave down during the day for a couch the other we roll away. Rug on this floor linoleum in the kitchen. There are seven windows in the living room besides the one in the door so guess will have plenty of light & fresh air this summer.

For Valentines day Jim gave me a beautiful corsage of 12 tiny red rose buds and one blue iris. He got his notice yesterday that he is to go the 9th of March. At least he knows what he is going to ~~know~~ when. He got tired of waiting so has been working this week.

Last night there was a I.S. class party at Vera Bobcocks + we really had a screwy time.

Art Carnot was home from So. Dakota last week + of course Ernst + the rest were glad to see him. Lenta + I stopped to see him for a couple of minutes + the army doesn't seem to be hurting him.

Lenta heard from Ray yesterday. He is in Africa + that is about all there is to say I guess.

Marjorie Hoshell's picture was in the last issue of "Hollywood" Jim just came ~~over~~ over and gives what - he just gave me the Louie's book. Heart shaped with Amethyst settings. See!!

Jim says "Hello"!

It is now Sunday afternoon & I have just finished doing the dishes and cleaning the kitchen while Louta slept.

Last night Jim & I went to the show but about 12:00 we decided to both go home & "hit the hay" as we were both pretty tired. Saw "The War against Mrs. Hadley" and "George Washington Slept Here."

I went to L.S. & Church this morning & when I came home Louta had dinner ready. Chicken, mashed potatoes ^{gravy}, fresh beans, combination salad, tea cake, & I brought home ice-cream. ~~In rather~~ full!

Mr. Bologonni, a very famous ~~cellist~~ cellist is talking tonight at league. He is a native from So. America

I can't seem to think of much ^{more} to write so guess I'll close.

Love,
Margaret

How's this for stationery?
