Dear Dorthy,

I just received your letter and as I am determined to go home with every letter answered, I too am answering promptly. This is about my thirteenth letter this week. If I write many more I will have to join the army so my mail will go free or land in the poor house. 30¢ worth last week and 30¢ more this week and me without a job. Maybe I didn't make myself clear in my letter. I don't exactly know myself what I am going to do. Plan to go to night school and review my typing and shorthand. Whether it is office or factory work I have no idea. Everybody says I am crazy to stay at this.

I would like to be free once more with the married daughter and baby talking about coming back home to live and I imagine I think are going to have a baby and Brother is talking of getting married and all of them living on Army and Navy pay, I think I had better get out while the getting out is good. What do you think. Would like to get out where I can meet people for a change. I mean to stay with your sister. Will probably have to kick jim out every night so I can go to bed.

you must think the same of Bill as I do. Wish he would make a sudden decision to leave and address of something.

I am beginning to have a feeling that maybe Marvin might have been sent out, although he thought his Chances in here good for awhile. just wait and see I guess. I have ceased to let it worry me but I thought I had better not think things about him that weren't true in case he can't help himself.

Law and Diana are fine. we had planned to go to Lincoln Park and go horse back riding this Sunday but way the weather is now believe I would freeze. we can always find something else to do.

about stopping off to see you. Nothing I would have better but you know these trains. never seem to go to the right places at the right time.

Give my love to Lionel and make him behave himself and not get fresh like I do. Whoa!

Start praying for me that I get a good job when I come back. one where I can lie in bed on Sunday morning. Nothing could be more wonderful.

I must close as there are so many things to do. Write to me after Oct 31 - at Delphos, Iowa.
The folks are meeting me in Creston Sunday eve Nov 1.

Lots of Love
Leonts.
