Tues. A.M.

Dear Dorothy -

Sure - we have neglected the poor child - try to do better now. Aunt Jessie & Uncle Sam left about 9 this morning and will we ever miss them. It's been so raining they couldn't drive around much so we have spent a lot of time at Grandpa's - almost had to stay all night last night - wind & rained over 2 inches. Finally let up & we came home in Grandpa's car about 11 o'clock. It's grand this morning but oh so muddy.

We went over to Chuck's in the wagon Sunday for another turkey dinner. Alta was down, too. Chuck & Pearl came over to Grandpa's that evening & Cliff & ~~Paula~~ <sup>Mona</sup> & Cliff's cousin from Chicago. and we had a pennuckle game & chinese checkers.

Friday & Sat. nights Uncle Fred was here & we played Rook. Sat. P.M. we went to Mt. Airy in the rain & John had two teeth filled. Sent your watch to you $1.50 - balance rod broken - better be careful not to throw it around! Margaret's watch had to have a piece ordered so it wasn't ready yet.

By your schedule you don't work in the morning but have 2 hrs. at noon - isn't it pas?

Got your letter & Margaret & Naomi's yesterday. Margaret had me order forest green velvet for a 4 gored skirt & it should come today. Mayrice Miller is going to make over the gray kimmer coat into a jacket for Margaret to wear with the skirt. Margaret plans to take dress designing in night school right away & make a cadet blue flannel dress.

Bertha Saville is working at Baptist Old People's Home in Maywood.

Clyde is coming home for this week end. Lenta is coming soon so she may come with him. Margaret gets \$18 now with  $\frac{1}{2}$  whi salary as bonus at Xmas.

Did I write you that Uncle Fred's - Ruth & Naomi all came in time for Grandpa's birthday dinner on Sunday. Ruth & Luther came to dl. M. to look at cars & Ruth decided to stay over & Naomi had come home for a party at Norwalk & neither knew the other was at home, so then they all got in & came down here & just made the bus at dl. M. at 8 o'clock for Naomi to go to Paston. Aunt Kko & Uncle Billy were down in the P. M.

Now the surprise — Alice went over to Farmington Sat. P. M. & isn't back yet. Vesta & Maxine & Edward went to Bloomington, Ill. to take Edward over to work, so Alice picked up the P. J's & went along. They will be back today, long they didn't get back yesterday but Alice has had a grand time, I'll bet. I'd like to have seen Amah Lou when Alice got there. Got the corduroy jacket finished & Alice wore it.

I must get busy & clean up the house - it's a mess. Garden Club this P. M. WSCS - tomorrow & Amy asked me to serve in her place. Friday is a poultry (turkey) meeting at Maryville & if we get the new battery for the car we would like to go. Jodie hasn't got their silo filled yet & they may be doing that. Had been about 5 to ton of alfalfa & lespedeza hay to cut too, if it ever quits raining.

I'll try to find something to send to you to eat but we have had silo filling & spent so much time just visiting with Sam & Jessie that I haven't done much extra. I have one of your ten uniforms on believe it or not - what colors are you wearing this year?

Must get Dad a bite to eat as he has to help Tod set the silage cutter this P. M.

Love & try to do better - mother

STAGE SCREEN RADIO

REMEMBER when Colleen Moore was trooping about the country with her dolls' house? Well, if present plans go through Charles Boyer may soon be engaged in a slightly similar journey. He will make personal appearances with the openings in various cities of "Hold Back the Dawn," and will also display his model of the city of Paris in theater lobbies and department stores. Valued at more than $50,000, the miniature city shows Paris as it was before the German occupation. Part of the proceeds of the tour will go to war relief organizations. When traveling, the city is housed in eight crates; setting it up keeps four men occupied for two days.

Apparently everybody who saw Kathryn Grayson in that last Hardy film wanted to know what her next picture would be. Letters poured into the Metro studios, and out went the word that she will appear in "The Vanishing Virginian." She's but recently returned from her honeymoon—in private life she's now Mrs. John Shelton—and will be back before the cameras soon.

It's rather a shock to realize that Hedy Lamarr has been resting for nearly eight months—hasn't worked since "Ziegfeld Girl." She's beginning a new picture now, "H. M.

HEDY LAMARR

Pulham, Esq." based on the Marquand novel—it's difficult to see how either of the two leading feminine roles can be twisted around to fit her, but stranger things are happening in Hollywood all the time.

Maybe you'll be crazy about the latest Walt Disney, "The Reluctant Dragon." But a lot of us wish that Mr. Disney would abandon these long features and stick to good short ones. Both this one and "Fantasia" could be cut into several good shorts.

In "Sullivan's Travels" you'll see a Veronica Lake who'll startle you—a boy hobo, apparently, in turtle-necked sweater, old cap, blue denim work trousers and a coat that's too large for her. Her daughter's birth interrupted her picture making for a while, but Paramount went right on making plans for her; she'll be starred next in "This Gun for Hire," in which she'll portray a magician who becomes involved with a munitions magnate in a mysterious murder. Which means that she'll have to take lessons in the art of magic.

Lewis Stone is taking time out from the "Judge Hardy" role, between the family chronicles, to play an army colonel in "Steel Cavalry," the new Wallace Beery picture. But he'll have to be careful not to do anything the Judge wouldn't do, or the fans will protest.

Charles Laughton (have you heard the new radio program, "Three Ring Time," starring him and Milton Berle?) would have been an innkeeper if Laughton, Sr., had had his way. He placed Charles at Claridge's, in London, to learn the hotel business. And his son learned one valuable thing—how to impress a naughty waiter. "Just order water and a poached egg on toast," says he. Seems that it gets them down every time, especially if they've been urging champagne on you.

The children who attend New York City's public schools ought to find at least some of their lessons pretty enjoyable. They'll be shown Warner Brothers' national defense and historical shorts as part of the curriculum.
